++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy and cool with periods of rain.

Today:
Cloudy and cool with some patchy rain and drizzle, turning more widespread through the afternoon and heavy at times near the coast. Becoming breezy in the evening, especially near the north Norfolk coast. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloudy with further periods of rain. After midnight rain will tend to ease as some drier spells develop. Staying breezy near the coast. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Friday:
Early cloud and rain will soon clear on Friday morning leaving a dry day with long bright or sunny intervals. Cold along the east coast. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Mostly dry through this period but still rather cloudy. Feeling cool underneath the cloud. The best of any cloud breaks likely further east on Sunday and Monday.
